ALCOHOL POLICY: Alcohol sales begin from the time the gates open and continue until the end of the third quarter. An individual must be 21 years of age to buy alcoholic beverages and proof of age is required. Everyone, regardless of age, must present a valid ID for each alcohol purchase.

There is a two-drink limit per order until the start of the third quarter. After the start of the third quarter, there is a one-drink limit per order until the end of the third quarter. No alcohol will be sold in the fourth quarter of any game. During the Chargers-Raiders game on November 10, 2011 there is a one-drink limit per transaction and all alcohol sales will be eliminated following halftime.

AUTOGRAphS: Players do not sign autographs during games. For information on Chargers in the Community, visit www.chargers.com.

Automated Teller Machines: ATM Machines are located on the Plaza Level between Gates F & G, at Club Level Sections 15 and 27, View Level Section 20 and outside the stadium at Gate A.

Baby Changing Stations: Diaper changing tables are located in most of the women’s and men’s restrooms throughout the stadium. Family restrooms are located at Loge 49 and Loge 54.

Banners: The Chargers encourage fans to create signs to show their support for the team. Banners must be related to the game, in good taste, must not obstruct the view of other fans or interfere with stadium structures and signs. Generally, banners should not be larger than three feet by three feet.

Beach Balls: Beach balls and other inflatable items are prohibited from entering the stadium. See Prohibited Items for more information.

Cameras & Video Recording Devices: Fans are permitted to bring cameras and video recorders into the stadium, provided they are intended for personal use only, do not interfere with other fans’ view of the game and recorded material does not appear on the internet.
The taping of game footage is prohibited. Fans are not permitted to stand in aisles or obstruct others from viewing the game while taking pictures. Tripods, camera stands, and cameras with a telephoto lens longer than 6 inches (detachable or non-detachable) will not be permitted into the stadium.

CARRY-IN ITEMS: Food in a small plastic bag and factory-sealed plastic water bottles, half-liter, 17 oz. or less (limit two per person) are allowed into the stadium. Bottles, cans, coolers and large bags are not permitted inside the stadium. Carried items are limited based on a size restriction of 12”x12”x12” and at the discretion of event staff. All items are subject to search or may not be admitted.

CATERING & KEG PERMITS: Any tailgate which provides catered food service or furnishes a keg must provide proof of liability insurance and obtain a permit from Qualcomm Stadium. SDMC 59.0502(a)(10). Contact the Qualcomm Stadium Special Events Coordinator at (619) 641-3107.

CHARGER GIRLS: The Charger Girls may be best known for their entertainment on the sidelines at San Diego Chargers games; however, they spend the majority of their time volunteering and working in the community. The Charger Girls would love to be a part of your next event! For an appearance at a golf tournament, grand opening, awards banquet, Monday Night Football event, or fund raiser, go to www.chargers.com/charger-girls for appearance guidelines and a request form.

CHARGERS AUCTION: Chargers Auction is the official on-line auction of the Chargers. It is the best source of unique collectibles, memorabilia, one-of-a-kind items, and exciting fantasy experiences direct from the Chargers through the NFL Auction Network on eBay. All proceeds from sales on Chargers Auction go directly to the Chargers Community Foundation. To begin your Chargers Auction, simply go to www.chargers.com and click on the link that says AUCTION.
CHARGERS PRO SHOP: For official San Diego Chargers merchandise online, link to the Chargers Official Online Store at www.chargers.com.

CHARGERS TEAM STORE: The Chargers Team Store is located at Qualcomm Stadium, Gate G and is open year-round from 10am until 6pm (between February and August it is closed on Sundays). On game days, an additional team store at Gate B will open five hours prior to game time. A game ticket is required to enter. The Team Store closes one hour after the game ends. Contact the Chargers Team Store at (619) 641-6053.

CHARGERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION: Since its creation by Alex Spanos in 1995, the Chargers Community Foundation has been a leader in assisting our schools, supporting youth sports and providing monetary resources to nonprofit organizations and causes critical to our community. Along the way, the Foundation has donated nearly $9 million dollars to assist with a wide range of programs and services that directly impact youth and families in our county. The Foundation’s largest ongoing program, “Chargers Champions,” provides grants to local schools for badly needed physical fitness, nutrition and athletic programs on area campuses. For more information contact the Chargers’ Community Relations Department at (858) 874-4500.

CHILDREN: Anyone over 36 inches in height or children over two years of age require a game ticket.

CLUB LEVEL: The Chargers Club Level features early VIP entrances, wider padded seats, in-seat wait service, four club lounge bars and a variety of food and special amenity items. The Club Level is an exclusive level for Luxury Seating members only.

CODE OF CONDUCT: The Chargers are committed to creating a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable experience for all fans, both in the stadium and in the parking lot. We want all fans attending our games to enjoy the experience in a responsible fashion.
Fans who demonstrate inappropriate and disruptive behavior, including the following, are subject to ejection and season ticket holders risk losing their season ticket account and/or parking privileges for:

- Excessive consumption of alcohol
- Obscene, offensive or abusive language or actions
- Fighting, or otherwise dangerous, abusive or profane behavior
- Unruly or inconsiderate behavior
- Indecent exposure or undressing
- Wearing obscene or indecent clothing
- Smoking, inside the stadium
- Scalping or other improper resale of tickets
- Interfering with security procedures
- Interfering with the progress of the game, going onto the field or throwing any object onto the field or on the stadium premises
- Any action warranting eviction and/or confiscation of game tickets by SDPD or stadium security

Event patrons are responsible for their conduct as well as the conduct of their guests and/or persons using their tickets. Even if season ticket holders give away or sell their tickets to a game, the account holder is accountable for the actions of those using the tickets. Accounts can be forfeited partially or entirely for violations of the Code of Conduct.

Stadium staff will promptly intervene to support an environment where event patrons, their guests, and other fans can enjoy the event free from the above behavior. Event patrons and guests will be subject to ejection without refund and potential loss of ticket privileges for future games for violations of the Code of Conduct.

Report Fan Conduct issues from your cell phone or mobile device. Text SECURITY to 59629. Message and data rates may apply.

COASTER: North County Fans can now COASTER to all Sunday Home Games! Coaster trains depart the Oceanside station Sunday with stops at all stations along the way before arriving at the Old Town Transit Center where fans can transfer to the Trolley Green Line to continue on to Qualcomm Stadium. The $14 Region Plus Day Pass is sold at all Coaster Ticket Machines and provides round-trip travel on both the COASTER and Trolley. For more information and a schedule of departure times visit www.GoNCTD.com.

* May be added, still tentative at time of printing

SAN DIEGO TROLLEY: The Trolley’s Green Line provides frequent service to the Qualcomm Stadium station, just steps away from Gate K. Three hours before game time, Green Line service increases to every five to seven minutes. There’s increased post-game service too. Please allow plenty of travel time, especially for weeknight games.

Fans can park free at many Green Line stations, including the Santee Trolley Square, Gillespie Field, the El Cajon Transit Center, Old Town, Morena/Linda Vista, Hazard Center (Lower Level only), Grantville and 70th Street. Many Blue and Orange Line stations also have free parking and fans can transfer to a Green Line train at either Old Town or Grossmont Center.

Buy a $5 Day Pass at ticket vending machines before boarding. Staffed ticket booths are available at high volume stations. Commemorative Day Passes are also sold in advance at the Chargers Team Store at Qualcomm Stadium, the Transit Store at First and Broadway or by visiting the eStore at www.sdmts.com.
SPORTS FAN EXPRESS: The Sports Fan Express will offer roundtrip motorcoach transportation for fans to all pre-season and regular season home games, including Monday and Thursday night games. Motorcoaches have direct private access into stadium parking assuring quick entry and exit. Reserved roundtrip fare is $20 per person (all ages) from 5 convenient locations when tickets are purchased online. Ticketed passengers receive priority boarding. Walk-up cash paying customers are $25 round trip. Season passes are $175 for 10 games (all pre-season and regular season games are included).
